From the Helm

Aaron Wagner

Well, Folks, the time has come for me to finally pass the torch of Presidency to someone else.

I've had a really great time being your President but yes, it's time for me to step down.

I want to thank my Board for first of all, doing the job they volunteered for and doing so well, they made a huge difference in how the club was run. They all did an outstanding job and I applaud them heartily. (Standing Ovation!!)

Honestly, without them, and I mean each and every one of them, the Presidency would never run as smooth as it does. I had an exceptional group of people to work with. They kept my head on straight and together, we moved the club to being the great club it is today.

MY Board presented me with great ideas that we implemented which only improved in the quality of the contests available for each member. My Board made it easier to enter each contest. My Board made being your President fun!

But, as I said, a new year is approaching and you now will have a new Board with newer ideas to enhance the membership of such a great club.

For those of you who were not able to make our last meeting when we held our elections, here are the results.

Your new Board of Directors as of January 1, 2014 is:

President: Mike Gilger
Vice President: Bill Guenther
Secretary: Randy Hall
Treasurer: Jack Spies

Those who have stepped forward and have been appointed to serve as Committee Directors are:

Editor: (returning) Jim Quorollo
Advertising: (returning) Missy Becker
Membership: (returning) Donnie Brennan
Programs: (returning) John Simonieg
Social Events: (new) Sandy Rosen and Darlene Rosen
Fishing Events: (new) Joe Udvari
Fishing Events Records: (returning) Bob Rand
CCMAC Rep: (returning) Mike Quinn
Ladies' Liaison: (returning) Cris Scheib and Jane Stenberg
Sunshine Lady: (returning) Donnie Brennan
Past President: Aaron Wagner

So without further ado, I will bid all of a fond farewell by saying:..... "Th Th Th That's all folks!"

Spanish or King Mackerel?

Large Spanish mackerel and juvenile king mackerel (around 30-inches) are sometimes difficult to tell apart. Young “kingfish” will often have numerous yellow spots and at first glance look very much like a very large Spanish.

This past month, some young king mackerel were initially submitted to fishphotos@pgifishingclub.org as Spanish mackerel. Here's an easy way to tell the difference. Pay close attention the lateral line that runs along the side of both species. It takes a sharp dip just below the second dorsal fin of the king but just wanders aft on the Spanish. Here's one photo taken from a recent fishphotos submission initially ID'd as a Spanish mackerel. I've annotated the lateral line, second dorsal and spots:

A juvenile king mackerel showing lots of spots like a Spanish mackerel, but the sharp dip in lateral line is a give away.

And here's a Web site that explains the two primary means to tell the difference, lateral line and first dorsal fin:

<http://forshorefishing.blogs.theledger.com/11278/juvenile-king-mackerel-vs-spanish-mackerel-easy-id/>

The first dorsal fin on a Spanish is very dark, while on a king it is light gray or even white.

In many Spanish mackerel photos both the lateral line and first dorsal fin are difficult to see (first dorsal is often folded down in both king and Spanish photos). Here's a photo from the Web that clearly shows how the Spanish lateral line just wanders toward the tail, and it also shows the dark first dorsal fin:

So, pay attention to the two main difference next time you catch a “larger” mackerel. If it's a king, the lateral line stands out, and if it's a smoker king, you'll have no problem with the ID!

Well, two years have flown by and I am writing my final article for the PGI Fishing Club newsletter. It went very fast, it's a lot of work, but it is a very rewarding job. I learned so much, met so many people and thoroughly enjoyed working with the club members. Whether it's awarding members their Ladder of Achievement awards, handing out gift certificates to Fish of the Month winners, keeping everyone up to date with our Master Angler contest or providing guidance to members on fish identification, it is all very rewarding. Watching the club succeed and grow makes me proud. When I'm asked what I'll do now with all of the extra time I'll have, my answer is: go fishing!

Our November Fish of the Month contest was GROUPE. The wind was a big factor during the month of November and kept many members from going into the Gulf in search of those big grouper. Despite the weather, there were some days that were very nice and our members were able to submit 14 entries for grouper. For the 11th month in a row we had winners and congratulations go out to:

- Dick Doster, 1st place ($35 gift certificate), 30.0" grouper
- Gary Moerke, 2nd place ($25 gift certificate), 29.0" grouper
- Rose Anne McCaffrey, 3rd place ($15 gift certificate), 27.0" grouper

The winning fish was caught in Charlotte Harbor and not the Gulf so this goes to show members that grouper can be caught close to home without going offshore.

Thanks go out to the members that submitted pictures of their GROUPE catches. If you caught one and didn't submit it, you may have missed out on a great gift certificate. It's easy to submit entries; just e-mail a picture of you with the fish along with your name, date caught, length and type of fish to the club's e-mail address for submissions, fishphotos@pgifishingclub.org. We no longer are accepting paper photos so if you need help submitting a photo via e-mail, let us know.

Our December Fish of the Month is BLACK DRUM. Black drum can get very big and it's not unusual to see them reach 30, 40 or even 50+ pounds. Make sure you bring the heavy rods/tackle to handle these big boys. Members have been successful catching them using crabs, shrimp and chumming them using oysters/barnacles scraped from pilings. Black drum are TOTAL LENGTH; tip of the nose to the tip of the squeezed tail. I don't know many people that enjoy eating black drum, especially the large ones. If you want to keep your catch make sure you read the FWC regulations so you are up to date on the requirements. Also, just a reminder that fish you catch with a paid guide do not qualify for this contest. Make sure that you get photos of you with the fish submitted no later than January 1st.

A quick update on recent changes: Snook season is now closed as of November 30; gag grouper closes for us on the Gulf side December 4; there won't be a closed season on spotted seatrout this year; and there won't be a FWC closed season on red grouper in early 2014 like there has been in previous years.

Lastly, I want to welcome Joe Udvari as your new 2014 PGI Fishing Club Fishing Events Director. Joe has really been active with the club and earned his Grand Master Angler shirt in 2013. He is a great fisherman and will do an excellent job for you. Give him your support as he takes on the new job. Thanks Joe and best wishes!

Now take advantage of living in one of the best fishing areas in the country and GO FISH!

Programs

John Simonieg

Our November speaker was Dan Cambern of Hammerhead Fishing Charters out of Gasparilla Fishing Boat Docks. Dan's experience of diving our waters helped him get a fast start at guiding.

In fishing for Groupers he checks the bottom off-shore for structure of any kind. He says you can use pinfish, squirrelfish, blue-fish, squid or sardines and cut bait works well. He suggested to chum with frozen bait, then fish with live bait for the best success. Set up a drift of the boat over an area for the Red Grouper. Gag Groupers are usually found around wrecks. Use braided line to eliminate stretch and eight foot of leader since you may be fishing in 50 to 100 ft of water.

We had a good turnout with 114 attending and Dan kept their attention throughout. He will offer a discount for members if you mention it. He can be reached at 941-625-6226 or 941-380-6226.

Christmas party time is almost here so we will not have a guest speaker for December. The same goes for January, since that meeting will be awards night. Our next speaker will be Dannie Lathem in February.

Have a good Holiday.

Ladies Liaison

Cris Scheib and Jane Stenberg

Happy Holidays to everyone! We had a fun year & are looking forward to even more good times in the New Year. We don't have any planned events for this month since everyone is so busy, but don't forget that our Holiday Party is on Tuesday, December 10. If you have some free time check out some of the following events. "Stuff A Shoebox For the Homeless" on Thursday, 12/5 @ 2 PM at PGICA to support the Homeless Coalition, the Garden Club's "Holly Home Tour" with their beautifully decorated homes on 12/6 & 7 and the Boat Parades on 12/15 & 12/21. With everything going on, you probably won't have time to even bake cookies!

The Fish Girls had a great time in November. We had some yummy Thai food at The Thai Cafe in Port Charlotte for Out To Lunch.

Girls Nite Out found us at Whiskey Creek for dinner, followed by The Charlotte Players production of "The Hallelujah Girls."

We're planning some new venues for the new year, so if you have someplace or some project you want to try, just let us know!

Happy Holidays! Have Fun!

Cris & Jane

As I'm sure, by now, you are aware, I am keeping my position as Membership Director for your PGI Fishing Club. This is task of which I can honestly say is fun and rewarding. Fun because I get to meet so many people and rewarding because I have seen our club grow and grow and grow.

I'd gotten and email from our Editor reminding me that I'd been slacking off in getting this article ready for print.....he was absolutely right! Between Thanksgiving and hauling out my Christmas decorations, I completely lost track of the time.

So before I write a novel and lose myself in words, let me introduce to you our newest members:

DUANE & MARY HILGENDORF

CLINT & SUSAN KOHLBACK

RALPH & PAT LEADBETTER

JOE & LUCILLE PRUDDEN

JOE & JOAN THOMAS

HEZZIE & DONNETTE SAMONS

Please keep in mind ALL new members will have stars on their badges. Please go out of your way to say hello. Take a new member fishing. Teach him the ropes of harbor fishing....or should I say, "lines" of harbor fishing. Make a friend.

Never forget....each new friend you make might turn out to be your new BEST friend.

In the meantime, have a GREAT CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR!!

Donnie

Hi Everyone,
I'm glad to say that November was a very quiet month. Unfortunately, one card was sent. A sympathy card went to Peggy Parson who lost her father right around Thanksgiving. Our prayers and thoughts are with Peggy who will be going through a rough holiday season.

Remember, it only takes a smile to make someone feel better but I go a step further and send cards so if you know of someone who might need some cheering up, just email me and let me know who it is and why and an appropriate card will be sent.

I'll even send a birthday card if that's your wish.

Enjoy your holidays and have a safe New Years Eve.

See you next year.

((((((((((((((((big hugs))))))))))))))))
